 Wish I could find the one magic word to dry your eyes and heal your hurt

But you hardly hear me when those memories haunt you so Baby, believe me you can give up those old ghosts

If you trust me, you don't have to be afraid

 Leave the past to yesterday
 You're never going to ever truly love me,
 until you trust me

 Now matter what I'll be your friend

 You're never going to ever truly love me
 Until you trust me
